Scope and Content Note:

The S. Henry Dickson Letter, n.d., but probably circa 1858, to Henry Rutledge Frost addresses the availability for purchase by the Medical College of “Reentz’s Wax Museum.” These wax anatomical models of the human form were reported as being acquired by the Medical College in the 1858 circular. Dickson writes to Frost about the cost, $3,500, and the timeframe in which the purchase must be made to satisfy the demands of the estate of Dr. Reentz.
