

Collection #: MSS 110
Name: Charleston, S.C. Weather Tables
Dates: 1795-1802
Size: 1 volume
Processed: May 2007 by Jennifer Welch
Restrictions: None
Citation Form: Charleston, S.C. Weather Tables, MSS 110, Waring Historical Library, Medical University of South Carolina, Charleston

Scope and Content Note: The Charleston, S.C. Weather Tables (1795-1802, 1 volume) is a handwritten logbook of weather conditions in Charleston, South Carolina for January 1795- May 1802. The data includes daily temperatures, wind directions, inches of rain, the lunar cycle, and brief notes on daily conditions. The creator is unknown.

Related Collections:

MSS 70 Tables of Weather Observations 1746
MSS 72 Tables of Weather Observations 1839-1840
MSS 381 Clinical Climatology in Colonial South Carolina
MSS 391 Weather Observations by the Early Physicians of South Carolina

Subject Headings:

Climatology
Weather- South Carolina