Citation: The Joseph I. Waring, M.D. Papers, MSS 303, Waring Historical Library, Medical University of South Carolina, Charleston

Biographical Note: Joseph Ioor Waring was born in Charleston, South Carolina on September 4, 1897. He graduated from the College of Charleston in 1917, and received his medical degree from the Medical College of South Carolina in 1921.

Specializing in pediatrics, Dr. Waring interned at St. Francis Infirmary and Riverside Infirmary, both in Charleston. His residency was at Vanderbilt University Hospital in Tennessee. Dr. Waring also served at Willard Parker Hospital and Bellevue Hospital in New York. Dr. Waring was a clinician with both the Charleston County Health Department and the Charleston County Tuberculosis Association.

Dr. Waring was affiliated with the Medical College of South Carolina from 1927 until his death in 1977. He was a clinical professor of pediatrics at the college, and later became the curator of historical collections at the college's Hoffman Library. In 1969, the Hoffman Library was renamed the Waring Historical Library in Dr. Waring's honor, and he was also named a Distinguished Alumnus of the college.

Dr. Waring participated in numerous organizations. He served as president of the South Carolina Historical Society, the Medical Chirurgical Club of Charleston, and the Medical Society of South Carolina. He was a diplomat of the American Board of Pediatrics, and a member of the American Academy of Pediatrics and the American Association for the History of Medicine. He served as secretary of the Robert Wilson Medical History Club and the Widows and Orphans Society. He was also on the Executive Committee of the South Carolina State Board of Health, and the Historical

Board of Charleston. He was also chair of the Medical Advisory Committee of the South Carolina Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Dr. Waring authored three volumes on South Carolina medical history, as well as a history of the South Carolina Medical Association, a history of the Medical College of South Carolina, a booklet for the South Carolina Tricentennial, and over 100 articles on medical and historical subjects. Dr. Waring was the editor of the Journal of the South Carolina Medical Association for 17 years.

Honors and awards received by Dr. Waring include an honorary doctorate from the College of Charleston, plaques from the Charleston County Board of Health and the Charleston County Medical Society, and the South Carolina Medical Association's annual award for outstanding service to the organization.

Dr. Waring married Ferdinanda Legare, and had three stepchildren. He died on December 21, 1977.

Scope and Content Note: The Joseph I. Waring, M.D. Papers, 1923-1977, 3 cubic feet, document Dr. Waring's participation in the Medical Society of South Carolina, and his career as an author of both medical and historical works. The collection includes a small amount of personal and biographical materials, as well as his correspondence and lectures. The collection has been arranged into seven series: Correspondence, Lectures, Miscellaneous, Public Health Information Columns, Reprints, Writings, and Audiovisuals.

The Correspondence Series, 1926-1977, .75 cubic feet, includes Dr. Waring's correspondence on topics such as the publication of his books, research on medical history, and the South Carolina Tricentennial. Correspondents include Dr. Neill W. Macaulay, Dr. R.M. Pollitzer, and Dr. Richard H. Shryock. The series is arranged alphabetically by subject and the last name of the correspondent.

The Lecture Series, 1970-1974, .25 cubic feet, includes Dr. Waring's lectures, notes, and index cards used for his lectures. Lecture topics include caricatures and medical history in South Carolina. The series is arranged alphabetically.

The Miscellaneous Series, 1928-1977, .75 cubic feet, includes biographical materials on Dr. Waring, honors, awards, and certificates, news clippings, Charleston County Medical Society meeting minutes, committee and membership lists, and lists of items from the Waring Historical Library displayed at the Greenville, S.C. Health and Science Fair. The series also contains photographs and negatives of the Waring Historical Library and Dr. Waring and two scrapbooks compiled by Dr. Waring. A journal in the series has lists of books. The file on the Waring family has a newspaper article that mentions a portrait of George Washington Waring and his wife. The series is arranged alphabetically.

The Public Health Information Column Series, 1964-1973, .75 cubic feet, contains typescripts and news clippings of articles on various public health matters. These articles were written by members of the Medical Society of South Carolina's Public Health Information Committee and published in newspapers throughout the state. Dr. Waring served as chair of the committee. Article subjects include arthritis, family planning, drug abuse, obesity, and tuberculosis. The series is arranged alphabetically according to the original file structure.

The Reprints Series, 1 cubic foot, DATES, consists of reprints and off-prints of articles and papers written by Dr. Waring. The series is arranged alphabetically by paper title.

The Writings Series, .50 cubic feet, 1923-1974, includes typescripts of Dr. Waring's writings on historical and medical subjects, book reviews of Dr. Waring's books, book reviews written by Dr. Waring, research notes, and a file of unpublished works by Dr. Waring. The series is arranged alphabetically.

The Audiovisuals Series, <.25 cubic feet, includes photographs and negatives of the Waring Historical Library and Dr. Waring, as well as glass lantern slides used by Dr. Waring in lectures on the history of medicine in Charleston and the history of the Medical College.

Printed materials from the collection have been cataloged separately.
