Carolina

Biographical Note/Organizational History: Manly Timmons was born in Edgefield County, South Carolina in 1857. He practiced dentistry for 53 years, retiring at the age of 83. He was known for his generosity and sense of duty. He made over four thousand sets of teeth, charging twenty-five dollars per set, although he was known to accept farm products and quilts as payment. Dr. Timmons died in Troy, South Carolina in 1939.

Scope and Content Note: The Manly Timmons, DDS Scrapbook (1939 and no date, 4 items) was compiled by Dr. Timmons granddaughter. The original order of the scrapbook has been maintained, with the exception of two printed items, which have been cataloged separately. The scrapbook consists of a photograph of Dr. Timmons, his granddaughter's anecdotes about him, a letter from the Yearbook Publishers, and a handwritten note with Dr. Timmons birth and death dates.
