

Conditions of Permission:

This permission, if countersigned by a member of the Waring Historical Library staff, is for one-time only, non-exclusive use, North American rights in the English language. Any other use of materials must be authorized in writing.

This permission is contingent upon the payment of all use fees (see separate fee schedule).

All images remain the property of the Waring Historical Library.

The Waring Historical Library makes no assertion that it holds exclusive rights to the copyright for all materials in the collection. Therefore it does not assume any responsibility for literary, property, copyright, or any other legal issues involved in the publication and reproduction of items in its collections. In the case of both textual and visual materials (including photographs and manuscripts), it is the responsibility of the user to secure permission from the appropriate copyright holder and to clear reproduction rights. The Waring Historical Library has no readily available information concerning the existence and/or whereabouts of copyright holders. The granting of permission to publish by the Waring Historical Library does not absolve users of materials from securing permission from copyright owners and payment of such additional fees as the owners may require.

Applicants assume all responsibility for questions of copyright and invasion of privacy that may arise in copying and in the use made of the copy as well as for any infringement of United States copyright law.

The Library reserves the right to refuse permission for the use or reproduction of materials when such restrictions have been specified by a donor.

By your signature you agree to defend, indemnify, and save and hold harmless the Medical University of South Carolina Libraries, the Waring Historical Library and their employees or designates, the State of South Carolina and its agencies, employees or designates, from any and all costs, expense, damage and liability arising because of any claim whatsoever which may be presented by anyone for loss or damage or other relief occasioned or caused by the release of said photographs to the undersigned and their use in any manner, including their inspection, publication, reproduction, duplication or printing by anyone for any purpose whatever.

Waring Historical Library
Request for Permission to Publish

The Waring Historical Library is pleased to support non-profit uses of our images. No use fees are charged for organizations able prove their not-for-profit status by providing suitable documentation. No use fees are charged for use of the Waring Historical Library's holdings in student papers, theses, dissertations, scholarly works addressed to limited audiences, official publications by the Medical University of South Carolina, the State of South Carolina, or local government agencies in South Carolina, or for exhibition in museums. Before a commercial reproduction order will be processed, a completed Request for Permission to Publish form must be submitted to the Waring Historical Library staff.
