Organizational History: The South Carolina Medical Association chartered The Greenville County Medical Society in 1861. The purpose of the society was to promote the health of the community and friendly relations among the physicians of Greenville.

Scope and Content Note: The Greenville County Medical Society Executive Committee Records, 1905, 1 volume, document the preparations of the Society to host the South Carolina Medical Association annual meeting, held in Greenville in April of 1905. The records include notes on the facility where the meeting was held, shopping lists of refreshments, and notes on attendees. The records also include an index of eyeglass recipients. Dr. James Wilkinson Jervey, who served as the Society's secretary at the time, created the records.
