Biographical Note: Dr. Clay W. Evatt was an ophthalmologist in Charleston, South Carolina. He was a member of the faculty of the Medical University of South Carolina. Dr. Evatt died in 1989.

Scope and Content Note: The Clay Evatt, M.D. Papers, 1943-1966, n.d., .5 cubic feet, document Dr. Evatt's professional activities, particularly as a member of the Medical University of South Carolina faculty. The collection includes Dr. Evatt's lecture notes on such subjects as anatomy and ophthalmology. Also included is a financial ledger dated 1943-44 which records expense associated with 91-93 Rutledge Avenue. The collection contains two photographs: an X-ray print of a patient with an ice pick injury, and the 17th Annual Spring Graduate Course in Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology at the Gill Eye, Ear, and Throat Hospital class photo. There are approximately 400 35 mm slides pertaining to ophthalmology, some of which were purchased from commercial vendors and some made by Dr. Evatt and/or the Medical College of South Carolina, Department of Medical Illustration. The collection is arranged alphabetically. Printed materials from the collection have been cataloged separately.
