Biographical Note:

Nina Allsbrook graduated from Roper Hospital's College of Nursing, where she had been class vice-president, in 1926.

Scope and Content Note:

The Nina Maye Allsbrook Graduation Scrapbook, 1926-1927, consists of a collection of photographs, handwritten notes and letters, invitations, newspaper clippings, and an autograph section. The collection details graduation and the time period immediately after. The photographs show the nurses together, Nina Allsbrook or members of her family, and scenes around Charleston. Handwritten pages in the scrapbook document characteristics of the graduating class, including its flower, color, motto, song, and poem. The class will is listed, and there is a section detailing the class prophecy. Ida Thee, class historian, is identified by name. Other classmate who were identified by name include: Chayworth Griggs, Clara Simons, Ethel Redish, Effie Brooks, and Blanche Baxter, class secretary. Other notes are from family and friends giving congratulations on the graduation. There is also a correspondence to Nina Allsbrook regarding her school grades. Newspaper clippings are of public announcements of the graduation, and included is an invitation to Commencement Exercises. There is an autograph section in which friends and family members left personal notes.
